The reorganization of Mr. Haultain's Executive Committee is a fair sample of the treatment Saskatchewan has to expect under the assurance of responsible government which has been granted the Territories. She has been most unfairly treated, the twaddle of the Regina papers to the contrary notwithstanding, and we mistake the temper of her people if they fail to retaliate. We regret that Mr. Cayley, whom we believe to be the most able man in the Assembly, should have seen wisdom in being a party to the injustice.

BRITISH COMMERCIAL UNITY.

The Toronto Empire says: Col. Hill, M.P., presided at the thirty-second annual meeting of the Association of Chambers of Commerce of Great Britain in London [and], in alluding to the possibilities of a commercial federation between the various portions of the British Empire, made the following remarks as recorded in the Times:

"On the subject of commercial imperial federation, the president said that, viewing the injurious and sometimes exclusive nature of the tariffs which protection was setting up on the continent and in America, it was but natural that our thoughts should turn more eagerly to our great colonies, extending as they did all over the globe, to seek, if it was possible, to tighten the bonds of our commercial intercourse to the general advantage of the Empire. Our colonies were now our best customers, and with their varied climates were capable of furnishing us with all the food and raw material we required. Were it possible to develop their resources in this direction they would be able to buy more largely for us, and be glad to receive in much larger numbers that surplus population, the future of which caused so much anxiety to thoughtful statesmen."

No body called the president to order for calling the colonies the best customers of the Motherland; nobody rose to say a word about the continent to which they belonged, and the meeting, on the contrary, passed a vote of thanks to Col. Hill unanimously amid cheers.

The possibility of the British dominions supplying Great Britain with wheat is encouragingly illustrated by the Indian exports for 1891. India sent to Europe last year 1,397,466 tons of wheat, more than double the quantity exported in 1890, and 264,722 tons more than in any previous year. This unexpected supply was drawn forth by the European demand. If we had preferential duties the production of India, Canada, Australia and every other British country would be immensely stimulated.

Mr. Grover Cleveland is evidently in the race for renomination at the hands of his party. His letter in reply to Hon. E. S. Bragg practically says that while he does not believe in making the candidacy "something to be won by personal strife and active self-assertion," yet even at the expense of great personal sacrifices in ease and comfort, he would be willing to offer himself upon the altar of his country. The document is a marked slap at the aggressive candidacy of David B. Hill, and renders it likely that, with these two great lights of Democracy in the field, the party will have to compromise upon a third man.

The depression in the British trade is rendered manifest by the figures relative to the production of iron and steel last year. In 1891 the production of pig iron was 7,228,496 tons, against 7,875,130 tons in 1890, a decrease of 646,634 tons, or over 8 per cent, against a decline in 1890 over 1889 of 4½ per cent. The production of Bessemer and open hearth steel ingots was 3,156,543 tons, against 3,579,043 tons in 1890, a decrease of 422,500 tons, or nearly 12 per cent. The decline in the output of steel rails is remarkable, the production in 1891 being 662,676 tons, against 1,019,606 tons in 1890, a falling off in the year of 356,930 tons, or over 35 per cent.

A parliamentary committee is at work in England on statute law revision. They are proposing to give modern titles to some of the old laws. Changes are badly needed in some cases. It is proposed to confer the name of Habeas Corpus Act, 1679, upon "An Act for the better securing the Liberty of the Subject, and for Prevention of Imprisonments beyond the Seas." The "Act for punishment of Pyrates and Robbers of the Sea" is to be called the Offences at Sea Act, 1536, while that famous law, "An Act declaring the rights and liberties of the Subject and settling the Succession to the Crown," is to be called the Bill of Rights. As these measures are already commonly known by these titles the committee can hardly be charged with iconoclasm.

Two Irish parliamentary banquets were held in London on St. Patrick's day, and at neither of them was an indication given or hint dropped that the factions are coming nearer to reconciliation with the approach of the general elections. The memory of the late Mr. Parnell was honored by the rival camps and that was all. It is probable now that the dispute will not be settled until the people have repudiated one party or the other, and when it comes to a choice the minority will have to go. If the Liberals, as they say, have the sympathy of the country, Mr. Justin McCarthy's following will be the men to dictate the terms of the next Home Rule bill. Therein lies the secret of the uncompromising attitude of Messrs. McCarthy, Dillon, O'Brien, Davitt, Sexton and Sullivan towards Mr. John E. Redmond and his friends. Otherwise, there would be no reason in their arguments and speeches. The McCarthy party are staking their all upon the Liberals in the coming elections.

The merchants and newspapers of Jamaica are urging the Government of the island to renew the subsidy to the steamer Alpha, which secures direct connection with Canada. The Jamaica Gleaner points out that the trade with Canada is capable of great expansion; that owing to competition from Florida the United States has ceased to be a remunerative market for Jamaica oranges; that Canada could easily take a larger quantity both of bananas and of oranges. Besides, it must be remembered that in a great measure had it not been for the gigantic efforts of Canada our exhibition would have been a failure. We think, therefore, that by maintaining direct communication with that country, at a cost of only £600 per annum, considerable benefit would result, and we trust that the members of the Legislative Council will take this into consideration and continue the subsidy, at least for a few years longer, to afford facilities for increased trade between the two colonies. Our expenditure at the Jamaica Exhibition seems to have been a good investment.

Three months of taxation off the year, and still a surplus.

The real burden of the public debt upon the people of this country is the net interest paid per cent. That interest was in 1888 $1.90 per cent. Now it is $1.76.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

In Our Midst.

Did you see the Blouses and Spring Jackets at F. C. Baker's?

Carpenters are putting in the new front addition to R. T. Goodfellow's building.

Where did you get that Hat? At F. C. Baker's.

Betts & Gwynne's new building is being pushed ahead as rapidly as possible.

One thousand men and boys wanted to buy Hats and Caps at F. C. Baker's.

The Town Council holds its regular meeting on Monday evening next.

Where did you get that lovely Stanley Cloth? At Sproat & MacLeod's.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Poyer, of Duck Lake, came into town on Tuesday evening's train, and are staying at Mr. Stull's.

Ladies, the Dress Goods at F. C. Baker's are worthy of inspection.

Mr. Jos. Courtney, east end, is all smiles these days, Mrs. Courtney having presented him with a bouncing baby boy recently.

For the best assortment of Prints, Flannelets, and Gingham, go to F. C. Baker's.

Messrs. Newlands and Gunn prosecuting lawyers in the Nolin election case, returned home Saturday evening, the case being concluded.

We regret to hear that Mr. Macleod returned from Duck Lake Saturday last feeling very ill. He has since been confined to his bed suffering from an attack of inflammation of the lungs.

The tide of immigration is slowly setting towards our district. A number of settlers arrived here this week, bringing with them a couple of car loads of effects. They are being looked after by Mr. Main the local agent.

Mr. Justice McGuire arrived home by Saturday's train from Duck Lake, where he had been holding court. The principal business was the election case—Boucher vs. Nolin. Judgment has been reserved.

The Glee Club are practising hard and faithfully, for the coming entertainment, which takes place on April 18th. The piece "Trial by Jury" will be given in its entirety, which speaks volumes for the pluck and energy of our local talent.

Arrivals at the Leland—John Cadien, Hugh J. Cadien and W. Cadien, Marinette, Wis.; G. L. Bradley, Chicago; Frank Lagorell, Peter Deschamps, Ellendale, North Dakota; Alex. Stewart, David McBride, Wroter, Ont.

A Holmes, contractor, is fitting up Russell's old stand for Mr. Toogood, who will remove his confectionery and fruit business there as soon as completed. John is determined to be up with the "best of them" Success.

A meeting of the license commissioners is to be held in the Queens Hotel next Wednesday, April 6th, to receive the Inspector's report and transact other business in connection with granting licenses for this district.

We are in receipt of a large package of both flower and vegetable seeds from the well known establishment of D. M. Ferry & Co., Windsor, Ont. We have no hesitation in recommending the seeds of that firm to those intending to raise either vegetables or flowers.

The matter of street lamps appears to have been lost sight of for some time past. By way of encouragement to a purely local enterprise, as well as adding to the appearance of the town, at least half a dozen lights might be erected on the principal street corners.

T. E. Baker's men are hard at work fitting up T. N. Campbell's old stand for J. E. Sinclair, general merchant, who will move in as soon as completed. A large addition is being added on at the back of the building, which when completed will make a roomy and commodious store.

At a meeting of the Immigration Committee today, Mr. W. R. Fish was appointed to go to Regina to look after incoming settlers for this district. Ugly rumors of the sayings and doings of our neighbors to the east of us are heard on the streets, which we hope will prove untrue, but we feel assured Mr. Fish will straighten up these matters on his arrival there.

Dr. T. A. Slocum's
OXYGENIZED EMULSION OF PURE
COD LIVER OIL. If you have Asthma—Use it. For sale by all druggists. 25 cents per bottle.

The hum of the wood sawing machine is heard on every side, no less than two being at work. Consequently the housewives are happy in anticipating more of their "hubby's" company in the garden plot, while he is resting after the labors of the day is over.

The shanty boy is well when nothing is wrong. A few of the boys intend to trip the light fantastic at one of the houses in the east end next Friday evening. Those who are fortunate enough to get an invitation can count on a good time. The inimitable Johnny is to dance the "Irish Policeman," "Jack of Tar" and other specialties.

Mr. R. T. Goodfellow met with a painful accident a few days ago. Through an accidental fall he sprained a wrist, at the same time running a splinter into the thumb of the same hand. We are glad to know the effects of the accident are rapidly being got over, and that it will not interfere with his "bucking the goat" in the latter part of the week.

Moosejaw has had a second fire within a comparatively short time. Does not this town intend to take action, and get some kind of a suitable appliance to grapple with the fire fiend, or must we have a fire or two to rouse the Council up and let them know that they have not been true to the interests of the people they represent?

A course of physical training will be given in the High and Public Schools of Prince Albert by Constable Case of the N.W.M.P. This is a step in the right direction, and is looked upon with much favor by the teachers. Const. Case has had an excellent training in the Imperial Life Guards at London and Windsor, and will prove an efficient instructor. The trustees are forunate in securing the services of Constable Case.

We notice that in view of licenses being granted for the sale of intoxicants in this town on and after the first day of May, that the services of a constable to walk the streets from high noon until midnight, or after, was thought necessary by our own fathers, but what about a police-magistrate? We think it is more than what can be reasonably expected for a J. P. to be called away from their work at any time to hold court. Why not appoint a magistrate for the town as well as a constable?

The Royal Templars of Temperance held an open meeting on Tuesday evening in the Methodist church. The meeting was not only largely attended, but was a grand success, notwithstanding the dark night and muddy state of the roads. The programme consisted of speeches, readings and songs, all of which were well received. Among those who took part were Mrs. Mack, Miss Deacon, Miss Caswell and Mr. Orr. The order is doing a good work and meeting with continual success. Open meetings will be held once a month, to which a cordial invitation is extended to all.

We noticed recently at the railway station here a new kind of a machine. On looking at the shipping tag we saw it was addressed to Chester Thompson. On making enquiries from that individual he informed us that the machine in question was a double roller grain grinder, which had been sent out to him by J. Fleury & Sons, Aurora, Ont. on trial, as they wished to introduce their goods in this part of the Northwest. Mr. Thompson said he intended to fit up the building formerly used by him as a blacksmith shop with elevators and cleaners, and make a specialty of grinding grain to feed on each Wednesday and Saturday of the week. Chester, my boy, what next? politics excepted.

On Friday last the most exciting game of the season was played, the event being Grit vs. Tory. Quite a number of the supporters of both sides were pressed to cheer and encourage their friends on to victory. From the first it was plain to be seen that the Grit representation were in dead earnest and determined to win, while on the other hand it soon became evident that for the Tory players it was not a good day for curling. Mr. Campbell's team played an excellent game up to the two last ends, but the other team—we don't wish to intimate—could not have played worse, though we honestly believe they tried to do their best. Curling, however, is a slippery game at any time—different, you know, from other games played between these parties. The game at the close stood six ten to this year in favor of the Grits. "German Syrup"

Asthma.

"I have been a great sufferer from Asthma and severe Colds every Winter, and last Fall my friends as well as myself thought because of my feeble condition, and great distress from constant coughing, and inability to raise any of the accumulated matter from my lungs, that my time was close at hand. When nearly worn out for want of sleep and rest, a friend recommended me to try thy valuable medicine, Boschee's German Syrup. I am confident it saved my life. Almost the first dose gave me great relief and a gentle refreshing sleep, such as I had not had for weeks. My cough began immediately to loosen and pass away, and I found myself rapidly gaining in health and weight. I am pleased to inform thee—unsolicited—that I am in excellent health and do certainly attribute it to thy Boschee's German Syrup. C. B. STICKNEY, Picton, Ontario."
